getgeeked also announced that it's fall event in New York will be held on October 15th at the Brooklyn Expo Center. getgeeked's debut event in New York last fall attracted 240 press and 1012 consumers.

“getgeeked New York hit all the high notes for Lenovo with excellent media attendance and a unique opportunity to meet with tech lovers,” said Jeff Witt, Marketing Manager at Lenovo. “Our conference session was a great way to amplify our message that’s not typically provided at these types of events.
